New pensions statistics

2nd pillar lump-sum payments have almost doubled in ten years

In 2025, the number of recipients of new benefits from the occupational pension system (2nd pillar) had risen by more than 34% compared with 2015. Amounts received in the form of a lump-sum payment have almost doubled in ten years. There is still a marked gender gap. These are some of the results from the New Pensions Statistics of the Federal Statistical Office (FSO).
