Economic branches with a share of low wages higher than the Swiss average, 2018

Private and public sectors combined, in %

Sector 2 Production

manufacture of wearing apparel manufacture of leather and related prods. manufacture of food products manufacture of textiles other manufacturing manufacture of rubber and plastic prods. printing, reproduction of recorded media Sector 3 Services other personal service activities accommodation food and beverage service activities services to buildings and landscape activities audiovisual activities retail trade employment activities veterinary activities air transport repair of personal and household goods sports and recreation activities office administrative, office support gambling and betting activities advertising and market research trade and repair of motor vehicles land transport and transport via pipelines rental and leasing activities travel agency