

Available living space 2018

Percentage of population living in an overcrowded dwelling

Note: According to the Eurostat definition, a person lives in an overcrowded household if the household does not have at its disposal a minimum number of rooms equal to: one room for the household; one room per couple in the household; one room for each single person aged 18 or more; one room per pair of single people of the same gender between 12 and 17 years of age; one room for each single person between 12 and 17 years of age not included in the previous category; one room per pair of children under 12 years of age.