IMPI – Weights of the sub-indices by object type and by municipality type (weights 2020)[1]

Condominiums 51.860%

Single-family houses 48.140%

Pie chart segments:
- 13.916%
- 7.463%
- 3.785%
- 14.036%
- 8.940%
- 17.405%
- 11.134%
- 5.342%
- 12.080%
- 5.899%
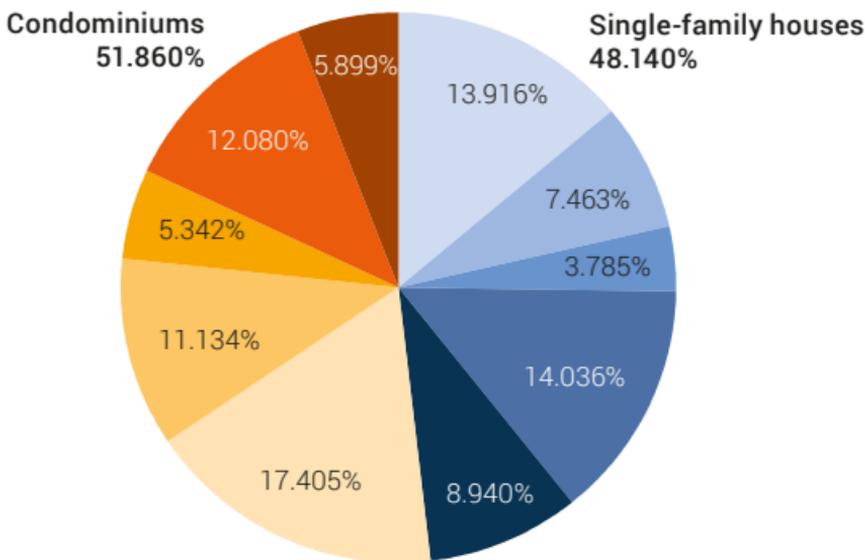

Single-family houses (SFH)
- SFH – urban municipality of a large agglomeration
- SFH – urban municipality of a medium-sized agglomeration
- SFH – urban municipality of a small or outside agglomeration
- SFH – intermediate municipality
- SFH – rural municipality

Condominiums (CONDO)
- CONDO – urban municipality of a large agglomeration
- CONDO – urban municipality of a medium-sized agglomeration
- CONDO – urban municipality of a small or outside agglomeration
- CONDO – intermediate municipality
- CONDO – rural municipality

[1] When calculating the total index, the individual strata are aggregated. They are weighted according to their share of the transaction volume from the previous year.