

The consumer price index measures the price development of goods and services that are representative of the consumption of private households in Switzerland.

The consumer price index is...

 100 000
prices collected
every month

of  1175
varieties of goods
and services

in  5400
sales outlets

in  11
price collection regions
and on the internet

during the  2
first weeks
of each month

in 12 product groups

 12 publications per year

 1 total index (CPI)

408 partial indices

 Dec. 2020 =100 points
current index base