Racism and integration

60%

of the population consider racism as an important social problem 59%

of the population rate the integration of migrants as good Proportion of the population that feels threatened:

Experience of discrimination and violence

30%

of the population who consider themselves victims

discrimination 27%physical violence 2%mental violence 12%

Attitudes towards target groups

Refusal to stereotype

Muslims

6%

Black people

14%

Jewish people 14%

of the population

Source: FSO - Diversity and coexistence in Switzerland, 2020