Empty dwellings census of 1 June 2017

The empty dwellings rate continues to increase

Neuchâtel, 11.09.2017 (FSO) – On 1 June 2017, there were 64 893 empty dwellings in Switzerland, i.e. 1.47% of the entire country's dwelling stock (including single-family houses). This figure represents an increase of 8375 empty dwellings compared with the previous year, i.e. a rise of almost 15%. These are some of the results of the empty dwellings census published by the Federal Statistical Office (FSO).
