New platform to support open data access in Switzerland

A new dashboard on the quality of opendata.swiss metadata to boost access to open government data

The Open Government Data (OGD) Office is launching a dashboard on opendata.swiss to evaluate and improve the quality of open government metadata. This tool allows providers to obtain a detailed evaluation of the quality of their metadata in line with FAIR principles. The project, which is part of the 2024–2027 OGD Masterplan, was developed by the Federal Statistical Office (FSO).
