The FSO adds Rhaeto-Romance to its web pages

Neuchâtel, 04.11.2011 (FSO) – The most important statistical information in the Rhaeto-Romance language: this can now be found on the new, small homepage www.statistica-svizra.ch on the Federal Statistical Office's (FSO) statistics portal.

Since 1985 the Federal Statistical Office (FSO) has made statistical information available to Romansh-speaking persons in its printed publication "Survista statistica da la Svizra". The latest edition of this publication covering over 20 different topics makes up the core of the FSO's Rhaeto-Romance homepage. Also available are additional Romansh publications and numerous links to further content on the more extensive German-speaking statistics portal.

Direct access to the Rhaeto-Romance language statistics portal: www.statistica-svizra.ch
