

1st certification rate at upper secondary level

Proportion of young people who obtained their first certification before the age of 25

in % of the reference population of the same age

