Professional situation of 2024 Swiss higher education institution graduates in 2025

Rise in unemployment among higher education institution graduates between 2023 and 2025

Between 2023 and 2025, the unemployment rate (based on the ILO definition) one year after graduation rose among graduates of Swiss universities and institutes of technology (UIT) and universities of applied sciences (UAS). It rose from 3.9% to 6.4% among holders of a UIT master's degree and from 3.4% to 4.9% among holders of a UAS bachelor's degree. Among graduates of universities of teacher education (UTE), it remained low at just 0.7%. These are some of the results of the Swiss Graduate Survey, conducted by the Federal Statistical Office (FSO).
